ADDITIONAL IMPRISONMENT TERMS

- (2) the need for the sentence I impose
- (A) to reflect the seriousness of the offense, to promote respect for the law and to provide just punishment of the offense;
 - (B) to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct;
 - (C) to protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and,
- (D) to provide the defendant with needed educational or vocational training, medical care, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner;
- (3) the need to avoid unwarranted sentence disparities among defendants with similar records who have been found guilty of similar conduct; and
- (4) the need to provide restitution to any victims of the offense.

Moreover, I find the sentence imposed is reasonable.

You can appeal your conviction if you believe that your guilty plea was somehow unlawful or involuntary, or if there is some other fundamental defect in the proceedings that was not waived by your guilty plea. You also have a statutory right to appeal your sentence under certain circumstances, particularly if you think the sentence is contrary to law. With few exceptions, any notice of appeal must be filed within 14 days after sentence is imposed on you.

If you are unable to pay the cost of an appeal, then you may apply for leave to appeal in forma pauperis. If you so request, the Clerk of Court will prepare and file a notice of appeal on your behalf.
